

LAUREL

My - dear Jeff,

I know last year that I said that I had a lot to tell you here, but Jeff I'm in a position that I can't. We've had some of the most wonderful times together that any other kids our age could ever hope to have. Never forget the beach trips with Mr. Stett and everything else.

I hope I was a help to you with your problem, but I don't guess I was the one you needed. I sincerely hope that everything turns out alright and your luck changes all around. Good luck anyway.

May the future come with sunshine and show the right way.

Love always,
Sally Bush

Millbrook High School

Millbrook, N. C.

Vol. XII 1961

Foreword

Mill waters flow to make an old mill turn
Just as we came to Millbrook with a desire to learn.
These waters set out in search of the sea
And pick up abundance from the wind and the lea.
Likewise, as students we seek our goal
To grow in knowledge forever to hold.
From the essence of this and the experience we gain,
We leave the '61 LAUREL to those who remain.

Our Goal: A Better Tomorrow

Civic students listen to Mr. Stott talk about politics.

Wayne Shorter listens as Mrs. Thomas relates an historical event.

Mr. Stott explains social life to Marie and Ida Bell.

Building a Better World

The "why's" and "why not's" of a machine become clear to David Green as Mr. Stephenson demonstrates.

Studying the heated solution carefully, Par Heinsohn, Judy Bartlett, and Janis Bartlett discuss the results.

Wayne Shorter prepares a solution by heating it in Lab.

Ones Who Assist Those in Need

"Helping others" is not just a meaningless phrase to Mrs. Essie Price. It is a motto that she lives by and uses daily in her work as Millbrook's special education teacher.

Teaching children to master reading fills the time of Mrs. Hartsfield.

Mrs. Dalton, the librarian, always provides a helping hand to students, regardless of whether the task be the digging up of facts for research or merely selecting an enjoyable book to read.

Class History

On a hot fall day in the year 1957 over ninety freshmen entered Millbrook High School. Some of us felt as if we were on top of the world and others felt like digging a hole and crawling into it. Our homeroom teachers, Mr. Clifton, Mr. White, and Mrs. Horton, helped us to get the ball rolling. A real sense of belonging came when the Student Council honored us with a tea. Our class officers were Jeff Lortz, Sally Laws, Joyce Sanders, R. B. Stokes, Mike Chappell, and Donna Johnson.

What do you know! A whole year had flown by and we were gay sophomores. How wonderful it felt to be an upper classman at last. Class officers were Jerry Carter, Sally Laws, Phyllis Barlow, Alfred Adams, Patsy Bass, Ronnie Smith, and Donna Johnson. A Valentine dance spotlighted the whole wonderful year, and Mr. Stephenson, Mr. Edinger, and Mrs. Harrison played a large part in making it so wonderful.

By the time we became Juniors it seemed as though we were encircled by a world of events. Our homeroom teachers were Mrs. Haywood and Mrs. Fisher. Our class officers, Jeff Byrum, Jerry Carter, Phyllis Barlow, Frank Cashwell, Jimmy Paal, Bunkey Morgan, and Donna Johnson, led the class in the numerous activities of the year. These activities included our magazine and Christmas card sales, our Junior-Senior Prom with the theme "Mardi Gras" (held for the first time at the Sir Walter Hotel), and the Homecoming festivities in which Sally Laws and Edna Roberson were our representatives. As marshals Frank Cashwell, Donna Johnson, Sally Laws, Cathy Edinger, Henry Heinsohn and Jeff Byrum represented the more intellectual side of our activities. That Junior year seemed only as a day and suddenly we were Seniors.

The year of anticipation and of decisions has arrived with only fifty survivors of the ninety at the beginning. Class rings, pictures, superlatives, and College Day - all played a part in making us really feel like Seniors. With much consideration, very capable class officers were chosen. They were President, Frank Cashwell; Vice President, Jeff Byrum; Secretary, Doris Jeffreys; Treasurer, Ted Hart; and Historian, Donna Johnson. We are looking forward to graduation with eagerness and to our future careers with ambitions.

School has come to an end it is
The work and joys now are past,
Ah, but time moves on, and so must we,
We are preparing ourselves to sail the sea.

Now is the time to set our course,
Now while youth is here,
Now we should our ships prepare
To meet each future destiny.

Dear Jeff,

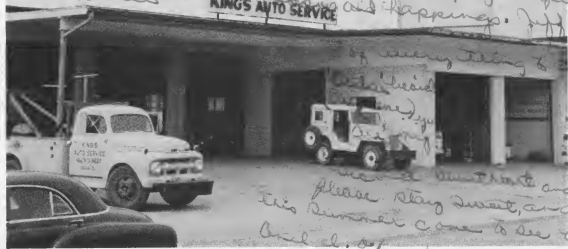

I want you to know that I think you are a wonderful boy. Even though I have known you since I was a freshman I have just begun to know you better the past few weeks. I hope you have the best of everything in years to come and I'm sure you will.

Don't ever change your wings and mouth of all don't ever quit smiling 'cause' LINWOOD KING 517 Downtown Blvd. Raleigh, N. C. makes you. I won't ever forget the proprietor the beach and all those weeks you had I do hope you learn to drive a motor scooter 'cause' next time I go to the beach and you are there I want to ride with you. I wish you the best of everything when you are away at college. please don't forget us here at (Millbrook) 'cause' we'll miss you especially me.

When you get to college write me and I'll keep you posted on the beach and happenings. Jeff please stay sweet, and this summer come to see us. And I'll be there.

Love,
